Dress Rehearsal Parent Observation

Parents may observe the dress rehearsal from the theatre or are free to leave and return to pick up their dancer(s) when they are excused. Parents who wish to stay and observe MAY NOT BRING OTHER SIBLINGS OR YOUNG CHILDREN who are not in the recital. We have been advised by Kingsbury Hall management that all parents staying during the rehearsal who are not dressing room volunteers must remain in the auditorium during the rehearsal, or must wait outside the building. Waiting in the lobby area is prohibited. Parents are asked to remain seated during the rehearsal and observe the "Audience Etiquette" guidelines listed in the guide.

*Dancers who do not attend Dress Rehearsal WILL NOT be allowed to perform in recital.

A word about our Volunteer Chaperones:

It is very important to us that parents have the opportunity to sit back, relax and enjoy their child's performance. Parents who volunteer are designated as chaperones to supervise and assist dancers throughout the dress rehearsal and recital performances. The chaperones are fully aware of costume changes. A lot of preparation goes into instructing and preparing our backstage help.
